each processor contains 64k 22-bit words of data memory the method was robust and demonstrated to be selective for the determination of cph in the presence of its primary synthetic impurity in drug substance and products