sounds like in your case, the gel will get the job done with a lot less aggravation.

however, patients want treatment, so there is pressure on the doctor to prescribe, even if he knows the therapy may not be helpful.

the symptoms of low testosterone in men range from lack of energy, depressed mood, loss of vitality, muscle atrophy (sarcopenia), muscles aches, hellip;

others use charts in which they make a note every time they use their medication as all know, flowers are the loveliest objects on earth